Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Saturday 23 Jan 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Wintry showers in the west, mainly dry in the east.

This Evening and Tonight:
Further wintry showers will push in across the west and far north this evening but becoming lighter and less frequent overnight. Staying dry and clear in the east, with a widespread sharp frost across the country.

Sunday:
Scattered wintry showers will continue to affect the west and far north throughout the day. Chance of these pushing eastwards at times, particularly during the afternoon and evening.

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Sunny intervals and wintry showers on Monday. Largely dry and sunny on Tuesday before rain, sleet and snow pushes in from the southwest overnight into Wednesday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.